

FORCE ANNUAL POLICING PLAN

2026

Serving with integrity, Protecting with innovation.

Foreword

My first Policing Plan as Commissioner of Police sets out how we will protect our country and meet our national lead force responsibilities.

Successful implementation of this plan depends on leadership at every level, setting clear direction and taking responsibility for translating our objectives into meaningful activity and ultimately positive outcomes for the public. Through collective effort and a shared sense of purpose we will endeavour delivery in an effective Police service today and build a strong foundation for the future; building on our reputation as pioneers of creativity and innovation through programmes such as AI integration and predictive policing model.

Misconduct will have to be addressed swiftly, fairly and transparently as well as ethically to the highest standards. We will continuously work to earn the trust of all our communities and will never take this trust for granted.

31st December 2025

R. Sooroojebally, PMSM
